

Hunter Education State Issued cards - Master Document

This document holds the most up-to-date images from each state's hunter education issued cards. Any card resembling the images within this document have been issued only after a hunter education student has graduated from a course offering the minimum IHEA-USA standards within its curriculum. If you notice an item appears to be out of date, please email a new image to mgr@ihea-usa.org for updating.

"Thank You" to Britt Hays from the Wyoming Game & Fish Dept. for her HUGE contribution collecting these for all of us in hunter education.

The Ten Commandments of Firearm Safety

1. Treat every gun as if it were loaded.
2. Always be aware of where the gun's muzzle is pointed.
3. Unload guns when not in use.
4. Be sure the barrel is clear of obstructions.
5. Be sure of your target before you pull the trigger.
6. Never point a gun at anything you do not want to shoot.
7. Never climb a tree or fence or jump a ditch with a loaded firearm.
8. Never shoot a bullet at a flat, hard surface or water.
9. Store guns and ammunition separately.
10. Avoid alcoholic beverages before and during shooting.

All of our certifications print on our licensing document. This includes Firearms Hunter Education, BowHunter Education and Trapper Education.

They are listed separately and one, all or any combination will be present based on what the hunter/trapper has taken.

We have recently combined the trapping certifications listed on the attached sample document.

Only those who have completed a Connecticut course will have the certifications listed on the bottom left as our sample shows.

Hunter's Pledge
 Responsible hunting provides unique challenges and rewards. However, the future of the sport depends on each hunter's behavior and ethics. Therefore, as a hunter, I pledge to:

Respect the environment and wildlife; respect property and landowners; show consideration for nonhunters; hunt safely; know and obey the law; support wildlife and habitat conservation; pass on an ethical hunting tradition; strive to improve my outdoor skills and understanding of wildlife; and hunt only with ethical hunters.

By following these principles of conduct each time I go afield, I will give my best to the sport, the public, the environment and myself. The responsibility to hunt ethically is mine. The future of hunting depends on me.

The Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission's Hunter Safety Program meets all of the requirements established by the International Hunter Education Association's Hunter Education Standards in accordance with the requirements established by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and the International Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies.

A Letter to Parents:
Your son or daughter has successfully completed a hunter education course. In the course, students learned how to handle firearms safely and hunt responsibly. But it is not enough for them to know safe and responsible hunting techniques—they must also practice them for the rest of their hunting lives. This is where you come in. Help them become safe and responsible hunters. Insist that they practice safe hunting. Help them become good marksmen. Encourage them to be respectful to other hunters, landowners, the game, and the land. Be sure they know and follow wildlife laws. With your help and encouragement, your young hunter will be able to enjoy a lifetime of hunting and the outdoors.

Good Hunting.

It is the responsibility of each individual sportsman to know and obey the game and fish laws of South Carolina.

Always remember the first three rules of firearms safety:

1. Watch that muzzle! Keep it pointed in a safe direction at all times.
2. Treat every firearm with the respect due a loaded gun. It might be, even if you think it isn't.
3. Be sure of your target and what is in front of it and beyond it. Know the identifying features of the game you hunt. Make sure you have an adequate backstop-don't shoot at a flat, hard surface or water.
