ONTARIO	An Ontario Outdoor Card with a hunting endorsement if D.O.B. is after 1954. If D.O.B. is before 1954, it is recommended that the applicant provide a confirmation of completion of Hunter Education Course or test. (ie. In the form of a letter from the Ontario M.N.R.F.). H1 stands for gun hunting accreditation (gun or bow) but do not necessarily mean they've taken a course if born before 1954.	Formal Hunter Education began in 1968. Those who hunted previous to this were grandfathered and were issued cards same as those who did the course. Brown and green hunting outdoors card are in circulation and will replace the turkey graphic card at the completion of the expiry cycle.	 The image shows an Ontario Chasse Hunting Card. It has a green and brown design. ALBERTA A.H.E.I.A. #88, 4003 98 Street Edmonton, AB T6E 6M8 Phone: 780-466-6682 Fax: 780-431-2871	Diploma or wallet card indicating completion of Conservation Education Program or letter from Alberta Government indicating same.	The WIN is s card needed in Alberta to purchase hunting, fishing, guiding and trapping licences. Anyone can purchase a WIN card but to hunt they must have hunter eligibility and proof of hunter education. The WIN card however does not have any special identification # or sign to show they have hunter eligibility. However, if they try to purchase a hunting licence of any kind and they don't have eligibility to hunt it rejects the application.	 The image shows two documents related to Alberta's Hunter Education Program. On the left is a red 'SAMPLE' card that says 'THIS IS TO CERTIFY THAT [redacted] has taken the ALBERTA CONSERVATION AND HUNTER EDUCATION PROGRAM'. On the right is a 'HUNTER EDUCATION CARD' for Meghan Thomas, No. 40846, issued October 7, 2014, with a signature of the Chief Hunter Education Officer.
BRITISH COLUMBIA	Any numbered "CORE" graduate certificate or wallet card, or a letter from the Ministry's Fish and Wildlife Branch, or the BC Wildlife Federation confirming successful completion of hunter safety course. BC also accepts official document from Province or State confirming successful completion of hunter safety course.	Hunter Number Card itself is not necessarily proof of hunter education in 1982 all those who held a hunting licence were grandfathered. For a 10 year period BC allowed people to swear on an affidavit that they completed hunter safety training or that they held a big game hunting licence in another state of province and we grandfathered them in as well. As of 1991 the only way to get a BC hunter number card was to show actual proof of hunter safety training.	 The image shows two documents from British Columbia. On the left is a 'Certified GRADUATE' card from BCWF (BC Wildlife Federation) with a green background, stating 'This is to certify that [redacted] has successfully completed the CORE course'. On the right is a blue 'Certified GRADUATE' certificate from the British Columbia Conservation and Outdoor Recreation Education Program, signed by the Minister of Environment.
